

What they are saying

Conference attendance provides an opportunity to see parts of the country you may not otherwise visit while allowing you to meet Chief Judges from around the country. Networking with these Chiefs will expose you to alternative ways to manage the administration of Justice in your State.

"I got a great tip from a Judge from California while touring NASA as part of our Houston conference. His mediation program which is free for eligible cases, with a resulting 50% settlement rate."

– CHIEF JUSTICE
SHERRY RADACK,
TEXAS COURT OF APPEALS

– JUDGE GARY
LYNCH, MISSOURI
COURT OF APPEALS

"The Dred Scott case was the historical focus for our St. Louis conference. History came to life in the shadow of the Gateway Arch as we visited the courthouse where the case was tried."

2017 Annual Conference

Lexington "entertains its share of queens, sheiks, equestrians and movie stars. However, it remains unpretentious and hospitable." Southern Living.

Take a guided tour and picnic at Adena Springs Farm, a world class thoroughbred farm. Then, a short ride to Old Friends Farm, a special place where thoroughbreds retire. You can even feed carrots to Triple-Crown Race winners.

Guests and judges will spend an afternoon at beautiful, world-famous Keeneland Racecourse, where, in his final race, American Pharoah dominated the 2015 Breeders' Cup. While there, dine on burgoo, beef brisket, and bread pudding.

We'll take you to the quaint town of Nonesuch for a luncheon at The Glitz, described by Southern Living as a "fairylane setting." Then, upstairs to Irish Acres Gallery with 32,000 square feet of antiques.

Optional activities include a tour of historic Lexington and Lexington Brewing Company for state-of-the-art brewing and distilling – with a tasting along the way.

For the history buff – Henry Clay's or Mary Todd Lincoln's homes, Shaker Village, Fort Boonesborough, Abraham Lincoln's birthplace, or Perryville Battlefield. Visit our museums – Headley-Whitney, Waveland, Kentucky Aviation Museum, Kentucky History Museum, or the Art Museum at the University of Kentucky.

On Friday evening, say farewell at Woodford Reserve, where you may tour the world-famous distillery set alongside a babbling brook in a picturesque valley before an evening of dining and dancing.

– Judge Glenn E. Acree

Join Us

Become an involved member of the Council of Chief Judges of the State Courts of Appeal.

A Note from the President

I invite you to join and become actively involved in the Council of Chief Judges of the State Courts of Appeal, an organization that consists of current, former and future Chief Judges from intermediate appellate courts throughout the United States. The Council provides numerous opportunities for consultation and education of our members, with a committee structure that is engaged throughout the year, a vibrant website, and annual conferences focusing on issues unique to Chief Judges.

The education program at the annual conference is presented by leading scholars and jurists, qualifies for CLE credits, and has included participation by United States Supreme Court Justices. Importantly, the annual conference provides an excellent opportunity for members to exchange information and practical advice on the role of Chief Judges.

So, join CCJSCA, become involved, stay involved (once a Chief Judge, always a Chief Judge is our motto). You will become a better Chief Judge and as a result your Court will better serve the public.

Our Mission:

To promote the improvement of the administration of justice, rules and methods of procedure, and the organization and operation of intermediate appellate courts by offering the Chief Judges of the intermediate appellate courts a body for consultation and education.

Meet Justices:

When available, Justices from the United States Supreme Court and Chief Justices from our State Supreme Courts join us as speakers and at our receptions.
